

Lakeview Correspondent Website: Accessing Product Matrices

1. Go to www.lakeviewcorrespondent.com to access the client site. The client site provides information about Correspondent Lending programs, product matrices, how to apply, and contact information.
2. Click on the “Login Here” at the upper right hand corner of the website.
3. Enter your email address and password and click the “Logon” button. This will take you to the Announcements screen. This screen will display all of the announcements we have posted. Note: Click on any link listed under the Description column to open an announcement.
4. The navigation tool bar is located on the left hand side of the page. Use this to navigate through the site for loan status, reporting, product matrices, seller guide reference material, and much more.
5. To get to Delaware State Housing Authority’s (DSHA) product matrices, simply click on “Product Matrix Documents-HFA” and then select either: “DSHA Fannie Mae HFA Preferred Program” or “DSHA Government Loan Program” as applicable.
6. If you have difficulty logging in, or have any other questions regarding the website, please contact Client Services at clientservices@bayviewloanservicing.com or 1.855.253.8439 for assistance.
